

2018 Rendez-vous

at Ste. Anne Parish de Detroit

Dear Friends of Ste. Anne Parish de Detroit:

Plans are underway for the second annual Rendez-vous at Ste. Anne Parish de Detroit, a French Canadian, Métis, and Native American cultural festival celebrating the founding heritages of Detroit. Our first Rendez-vous was so well-received that we've expanded the festival to a two-day event which will be held on Saturday, September 22 and Sunday, September 23, 2018, just in time to kick off French Canadian Heritage Week in Michigan.

The festival will run Saturday through Sunday featuring French Canadian and Native American Music; Dancing; Food; a Beer and Wine tent; Artisans; a Heritage Tent with cultural exhibits; Children's Activities; a Basket Raffle; and Living History Reenactors from the Colonial era.

Sponsorship opportunities are available for the Rendez-vous, which highlights the unique history and contributions by the French, Métis and Native Americans in the settlement of Michigan and Detroit.

The Rendez-vous is the ideal venue to promote your business or service while supporting the historical legacy of Michigan and Detroit. Please mark your calendar now and plan on attending and supporting this very fun and educational event. At Rendez-vous, the accent is back on Detroit!

Thank you,
Elizabeth Bourne
Rendez-vous Chairwoman
