Ste. Anne offers docent-led tours for all ages and demographics. We host school groups, historical societies, senior citizen centers, community groups, and more.

Ste. Anne holds impressive significance to both the city of Detroit and the state of Michigan. Come explore the second-oldest continuously-operating parish in the United States. Stare at the soaring Neo-gothic architecture. Stop by the tomb of Father Gabriel Richard, a man with unparalleled legacy in the city and state. Gaze at the oldest stained glass windows in the city of Detroit. Learn, reflect, be inspired. We look forward to seeing you!
