Pianists Katrina Sudman and Vincent Catalano visiting from Italy present an exciting duo concert of symphony themes: movements from Liszt's rarely performed arrangements of Beethoven's Symphonies no.5 and no.6 for piano solo, a four-hand symphony by Debussy, and the beloved "Peer Gynt" suite by Grieg.

Sudman and Catalano met in Rome in 2018 and formed a piano duo. They have performed at venues across Italy and the United States individually and together. They have each won titles in piano competitions including the 8th Concorso di Città S. Angelo (Catalano: Pescara, Italy) and the International Piano Competition at the Festival of the Gulf (Sudman: Salerno, Italy). Sudman and Catalano both continue their studies with Carlo Maria Dominici in Rome.
